ASTIGMATISM.

What It Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent Eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSON to put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30; 2 to 6. 302½ S. Elm St.

GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT.

Gaining Strength as the Hours Go By—Watch the Figures.

It gives the Telegram great pleasure to note the growth of Mr. E. P. Wharton's scheme for building forty miles of good roads in Guilford county. Look at the figures as they now stand under the head of "Good Roads Club." It will be observed that people outside of the county are taking an interest in the work. What, then, may be expected of those who live in the county and who are to be more directly benefitted? No man can figure the value of this matter to Greensboro and Guilford county.

A gentleman who lives in another state has noticed the movement and having once been a resident of Greensboro he writes Messrs. Wharton and McAlister a letter from which we make the following extract:

"I note with interest Mr. Warton's plan to stimulate road building in Guilford county. I hereby authorize you to put me down for one share, $5 00 per mile on this scheme. You can also put me down for $25 for your firemen's tournament and gala week."

It will be noticed that he not only subscribes to the road fund, but comes down liberally for our firemen's tournament and industrial exhibit. This letter should stimulate all those who have up to this time regarded these matters indifferently, if perchance, such there be. Let the ball be kept rolling.

A WEEK OR TEN DAYS

And Supt. O'Brien Promises the New Depot.

Supt. O'Brien, of the Southern, who has been absent for more than a month at Tate Springs, Tenn., was seen by a Telegram reporter today and, asked if the new depot would be occupied before the close of the college commencements and the subsequent departure of the young ladies, said: "It will be only a week or ten days now before the move will be made. The building is practically complete but owing to a few finishing touches and the construction of platforms we will not move before that time. The heating and lighting plants were finally tested yesterday and were in every way satisfactory. The "week" or ten days" will not be early enough for the young ladies of the Normal and Industrial College, as most of them will have left the city before another week, though if Superintendent O'Brien's plans are carried out the young ladies of Greensboro Female College will have a parting glance at the elegant structure.

The benches which were delivered some time ago have been shipped back to be exchanged for a much better quality. The new ones will probably be of oak.

Good Roads Club.

We the undersigned agree to subscribe the amount opposite our names for each mile of road to be macadamized outside of the city limits in the county of Guilford for the first 40 miles to be built, to be paid to the county commissioners as the work progresses.

The cast has been selected and parts distributed today. It is hoped by the management that each one receiving their part will go immediately to work and be in shape for rehearsal Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Academy of Music.

This play is to be under the management of the authors Messrs. Benson & Willard and with the exception of the parts that they take the cast is all of local talent.

This play is to be for the benefit of Eagle Hose Co. 7, and the purpose is to raise funds for the fireman's tournament. Every one be prompt.

Remember the first rehearsal Monday at 8 o'clock. Academy of Music.

HERO OF MANILA SAILS

For America Amid most Inspiring Demonstrations.

THE WARSHIPS SALUTED HIM

With Thunderous Booms While the Bands Played Touching Airs—British Ship's Tribute.

By Cable to the TELEGRAM.

Manila, May 20—Dewey sailed for the United States at four this afternoon. He and Otis exchanged farewell calls this morning. All warships in the harbor fired the admirals salute, fully manned at their sides, while the bands played "Home, Sweet Home" and "Auld Lang Syne." As the "Olympia passed the Brittish ship Powerful, the band played a British national anthem. The Powerful's band immediately responded with the "Star Spangled Banner."

MONDAY A GALA DAY.

Closing Exercises of Greensboro Graded Schools.

The commencement exercises of the Greensboro Graded Schools, the city's pride, will be held next Monday in the Lindsay street school chapel. The program is one of the best it is possible to arrange and the close of the most successful year in the history of the schools will be the most pleasing in their history. Hon A. M. Waddell, mayor of Wilmington, and one of the ablest orators North Carolina has ever produced, will deliver the annual literary address and a gem may be expected. All the other speakers are well known in Greensboro and will be heard with pleasure. The program for Monday is as follows:

Scripture reading and prayer, Rev. T. A. Smoot.

Introduction of class of '99.

Presentation of diplomas, Mayor Z. V. Taylor.

Announcement of prizes and distinctions.

Presentation of E P. Wharton prizes, Dr. Chas. D. McIver.

Music.

Annual address, Hon. A. M. Waddell.

Music.

Benediction.

LMOST READY FOR BUSINESS.

Greensboro's New Laundry Will Probably Start Next Week.

All the machinery, except the engine, for the new laundry, which will occupy the building next to the Eagle foundry on Lewis street, has arrived and is already installed. The engine is expected to arrive in a very short time, and Messrs. Patton and Scott expect to begin work by the middle of next week. Mr. Black, who has managed the laundry at the State Normal and Industrial College, has accepted a position as manager of the new one.

PROGRAM FOR TOMORROW.

At the State Normal and Industrial College.

Saturday, May 20, 1899, 8:30 to 11:30 p. m.—Reception to Alumnæ and former students.

Sunday, May 21st, 11 a. m.—Annual sermon—Rev. J. O. Rust, D. D, Nashville, Tenn.

8:00 p. m.—Address before the Y. W. C. A.—President E. A. Alderman, University of North Carolina.

At the Normal Tomorrow.

Sunday, May 21, at 11:00 a. m., Rev. J. O. Rust, D. D., of Nashville, Tenn., will preach the annual sermon. At 8:00 p. m. an address before the young Woman's Christian Association will be delivered by President E. A. Alderman, of the University of North Carolina. His subject will be "What I Saw in the Holy Land."

To Go Into Training.

Dr. J. T. J. Battle this morning sent George Mack, the younger of his horses, to Graham to go on the race track for training. George Mack is full of good blood and is a most promising trotter.

Another Platform.

The Southern is constructing another platform from Ashe street to the new depot for the convenience of passengers boarding and alighting from trains on track number 2. It is being built between the two tracks and will extend almost to South Elm street.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., May 20.

The High Point Trunk Factory, which was organized last week, will commence work in M. J. Wrenn's brick building on Main street.

Mr. W. H. Ragan's residence on the corner of Main and Factory streets will be moved to a lot purchased of the Misses Newlin on Main street. Mr. Ragan will commence work at once on his new residence.

The funeral services of the late B. F. Jordan yesterday afternoon was attended by a large crowd of sympathyzing friends.

Richardson Blackborne, a 11-year-old colored boy, was given a preliminary hearing this morning before Mayor J. J. Cox for stealing $5.00 from Miss Eliza Fisher yesterday afternoon. He plead guilty and in default of bond was taken to jail to await court. This same boy was whipped last court for stealing $5.00 from C. E. Cox.

We are glad to show that High Point will be connected by telephones to all the leading towns in this state and Virginia. This arrangement was made this week with the Interstate Co., and will go into effect June 15th.

TRINITY NOTES.

High School Debate—President Kilgo Gone to South Carolina.

On last Friday evening there was held in the college chapel a public debate by four young men of the Trinity Park High School. The question debated was, Resolved, That the proposed amendment to the constitution of North Carolina should be adopted. The affirmative was supported by J. A. Laces and E. W. Cranford and the negative by W. S. Loudermilk and T. V. Judd. The judges were Dr. W. P. Few, Dr. J. S. Bassett and Prof. A. H. Merritt. They decided that the speakers on the affirmative had presented the best argument and that Mr. E. W. Cranford made the best of the four speeches.

Wednesday evening the baseball team and a number of Durham young ladies enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. T. D. Jones. Nearly all of the baseball squad were present and were entertained in a delightful manner.

The young ladies of the Mary Duke Building last night gave their friends a very pleasant evening. Quite a number of students and others were present and refreshments were served on the long veranda.

President Kilgo left Thursday to be gone for several days. Friday night he delivers an address in Belton, S. C., and on Sunday dedicates the Methodist church at Williamston, S. C. Before returning he will deliver an address at the closing exercises of Oakland Academy at Gastonia and the Raleigh Male Academy.

Examinations begin Monday, May 29, and will continue for two weeks.

All the railroads in the state will give reduced rates to commencement.

J. N. Bailey, editor of the Biblical Recorder, will deliver the annual address at the closing exercises of the Trinity Park High School Saturday, June 3.

Prof. J. C. Horner, of Horner's School, issued an invitation to all the colleges of the state to send representatives to Oxford Friday, May 19, to arrange for an annual field meeting between the colleges of the state, to be held at Horner's School during next collegiate year. Dr. W. P. Few, chairman of the athletic committee of the faculty, left today to attend this meeting.

President Peacock, of Greensboro Female College, and Mr. O. N. Carr, of Greensboro, members of the board of trustees, visited friends at the park this week.

Miss Fannie Carr, of Raleigh a former student of the college, is visiting at the park.

Mr. S. A. Stewart, of the Junior class, has returned from his home where he was called on account of the death of his brother Mr. B.F. Stewart of the class of '94.

A gymnasium exhibition will be held this evening in the Angier gymnasium under the auspices of the athletic association. The program will be as follows: Dumb bell, hand and Indian club drills, exercise on horizontal and parallel bars, flying ring and German horse, high and broad jumping and weight lifting, ball games, tumbling and jumping.

Trinity Park, Durham, N. C, May 19, 1899.

A Wife Deserter.

Sheriff Gilmer last night arrested a man named Stevenson, of Randolph county, who had moved to Greensboro. A deputy sheriff from Randolph came after him and, accompanied by Sheriff Gilmer, went to a house in east Greensboro where Stevenson was found and arrested. He was carried back to his native county to answer to the charge of wife desertion.

THE WASHINGTON JUBILEE.

Capitol City Putting On a Gala Attire.

BUSINESS WILL BE SUSPENDED

Practically, During the Festivities of the Occasion—A Big Time is Expected.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, D. C., May 20—Washington is putting on her gala attire Flags and bunting are being used profusely along Pennsylvania Avenue and F streets, and other business thoroughfares, many of the stores, and private houses being handsomely decorated. Among the prominent features of the declarations are large pictures of McKinley, Dewey, Schley, Sampson, General Lee, and other notables of the army and navy, who have taken a prominent part in the struggles in Cuba and the Philippines. Unless all signs fail, or rain interferes, the indications now are that the celebration of the peace jubilee at the the national capital will be a marked success. The committee in charge of the arrangements are rapidly completing the'r work, and all that now remains is for next Tuesday to come. During the three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, which have been set apart for the jubilee, business in Washington will be practically suspended. On the three days many of the stores will close their doors during the afternoon in order to allow their employes to take part in and enjoy the festivities of the occasion. It has not been decided whether the departments of the government will close or not, and this will not be decided before the president returns to Washington. It is probable, however, that they will follow the example of the leading merchants of the city and close for half a day on the three days. The national banks, real estate offices and the like will close their doors each day at noon.

The committee have received some very encouraging letters and they are convinced that large numbers of people will take advantage of the low rates offered by the railroads to pay a visit to the national capital during jubilee week. The attendance is variously estimated, but it is certain there will be large crowds from Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, and even Florida. As is the case during inaugurations committees will be stationed at the Pennsylvania, and Baltimore & Ohio stations for the purpose of advising visitors as to the location of boarding houses and hotels and furnish them with any other information which may be necessary or desired. Washington is big enough to take care of all the crowds that may come to the national capital and has had so much experience in handling same that no fear need be entertained lest some may not secure accommodations. The police department is taking precautions to prevent the usual petty thieving which always is likely to to take place at big gatherings of people such as this jubilee promises to be. Fakirs will be here in abundance, but the police have taken measures to keep out of the city as far as possible pickpockets and other smooth appearing persons who are not conducive to the happiness of good society.

Fine Strawberries.

The Telegram is indebted to Mr. Samuel L. Trogdon for an extra fine box of strawberries grown in his garden from plants of the Lady Thompson variety purchased from John A. Young and planted the 8th day of last July. Mr. Young has just been to see Mr. Trogdon's patch and estimates that he will gather at the rate of 10,000 quarts per acre. This result was not obtained by a slip shod method but by careful cultivation and shows what can be done here.

Sad News By Wire.

Misses Bulis and Ivah Bagby, students at the State Normal and Industrial College and Greensboro Female College respectively, left this morning for their home in Monroe, in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of their little sister, Mattie, with appendicitis. Their father, Rev. W. M. Bagby, was formerly pastor of Centenary church, this city, and their many friends hope the little one will soon be well.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of Guilford Lodge No. 69, Knights of Pythias, held Friday night, May 19th, 1899, the following resolutions were adopted:

Inasmuch as it has pleased Him in Whose hands are the issues of life and death, to call from time to eternity our much esteemed and beloved brother, David Schenck, Jr., we as members of Guilford Lodge No. 69, Knights of Pythias, deem it appropriate to give this expression of our sense of his many virtues and of our profound sorrow at the loss which we have sustained by his death. Therefore be it resolved:

First, That we deeply deplore, in his death, the loss of one of our charter and most devoted members.

Second, That we sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family of our departed friend and brother and assure them of our friendship in their sorrow.

Third, That these resolutions be embodied in our minutes as a memorial and that a copy be sent to the widow and family of the deceased and be published in the city papers.

NICHOLAS IS WEARY.

It has leaked out at the peace conference that Nicholas Czar of Russia, that steel-souled potentate, whose mind we had thought was too deeply enwrapt with adamantine dignity to ever allow his tongue to discourse of aught save armies and fleets and national affairs of mighty portent, has grown so effeminate as to contemplate things etherial, to express himself as being weary of this "va'e of tears" and longing for that waftage to the tranquil shores where there are no death-warrants to sign, no navies to build, no armies to equip, no vulgar dirt to steal and no Chinese to butcher. Does Nicholas' guilty conscience goad him to escape its lashings? Does he hope to find sweet nepenthe in the slumber that knows no waking? Or is he only tired of "poisoned plattery" and "sick with greatness," and yearning for the peace of body and mind that the laborer feels who with "body filled and vacant mind gets him to rest crammed with distressful bread," and sleeps all night in peace and a good conscience.

"O hard condition! twin-born with greatness,
Subjected to the breath of every fool,
Whose sense no more can feel but his own wringing!
What infinite heart's-ease must kings neglect,
That private men enjoy?
And what have kings that privates have not too,
Save ceremony, thou general cere mony?
And what art thou, save idol ceremony?
What kind of god art thou, that suffer'st more
Of mortal griefs, than do thy worshippers?
What are thy rents? What are thy comings-in?
O ceremony! show me but thy worth."

The Wharton good roads movement increases in interest. Notice in the Telegram's news columns today the new additions to the subscription fund. The people see that responsible people who have the good of our courty and city at heart are taking part in the fight, and it is sure to win. Keep your eye on the list daily. The ball has started and will gather momentum as it flies. We predict that Mr. Wharton has instigated a movement which will result in placing old Guilford in the front row of counties in the state and the bestowing upon our beautiful city of Greensboro industrial preeminence in North Carolina.

The Filipino commissioners appointed to make terms of peace with Otis, have arrived at Manila. They bring the same request as others before them have brought—an armistice until the Filipino congress can meet and discuss the situation. Otis, of course, refused to grant the request Let the gentlemen return to their lines, and on with the war.

In an editorial giving some good advice to the Winston-Salem people and discussing the possibilities of our neighbor city, the Winston Journal says:

We need more capital, we need more good people, more live, progressive people, more people like the Cones, of Greensboro, who are really taking the lead in the progressive march of that town.

There is no doubt that the direct-ballot system of electing United States Senators is a good thing. Virginia is making great efforts to secure it, and we need it in North Carolina With the adoption of the system in this state we would have no more such representatives in the senate as Marion Butler and Jeter Pritchard.

The Kaiser says he'll be blankety-blank-blanked if he will support arbitration, as it is contrary to his divine prerogatives. The Kaiser had best keep his head. Capt. Coghlan still lives.

Englishman Pauncefort and American White appear to be quite prominent braves in the council of peace. And it is significant that their ideas appear to be running in the same channel.

THE RICH FOOL.

Sunday Readers Will Find This Interesting Matter.

Correspondence Telegram.

"Thou fool this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall these things be, which thou hast provided?" Luke 12:20. This was, as the lawyer sometimes calls it, a searching question. And so quickly did the man's life go out, that he had no time to answer, "then whose shall these things be?" And in all probability he died intestate. But he had ample opportunity in life to have answered the question satisfactorily to the Father. The man wasn't a fool because he was rich; he wasn't a fool because he was a farmer. But he was a fool for the simple reason that he had never found out that he was not the only man in the world, in the course of his existence, had not learned the great lesson of life. Any man, even if he be rich in worldly goods, is a fool who attempts to play single-handed the game of life. He needs a partner all the time, and if God Almighty is taken as the partner he need not fear the present or the future. But the man who thinks, in himself, that he has the supreme ability to meet the issues confronting him daily, will wake up one of these times and discover that his name is Ichabod, which is the same in meaning as "Dennis," the latter used by folk who are not read up in the Acts which tells us of Ichabod.

The rich fool was an agriculturist and understood how to make his lands pay in big crops. "The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully." He had what the insurance men call accumulation of surplus; but he didn't appear to understand that there was ever a time for him to make a distribution. And the poor fellow was in a quandary; he didn't know what to do. "And he thought within himself, what shall I do because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?" Poor fellow! Plenty men in the world exactly like him. Suffering and want all round them, and still they are thinking, where shall I invest this money, this cash, not now needed in my business? So the subject of our remarks thought and his words, what shall I do, had they been addressed to God would likely have received an answer from Him; but He was not in the calculations. A man may possibly ask himself this question twice in a life time. When he has not enough of the world's goods and when he has too much. Few are impelled to ask it from the latter cause. Many ask from the first. But this man had more than he knew what to do with. And he was such a bright fellow, so complete a master of the situation, that, perhaps after scratching his head a few times—all great men do this when thinking on large problems—he spoke at once; he saw through it all at a glance, and said: "This will I do: I will pull down my barns and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits." Notice, if you please, 'there' in his new barns, he will put the stuff. No wonder God killed the selfish man.

The fact no doubt you have noted, that often a man after toiling for years for an accumulation will cease to breathe about the time of the consumation of his plans, and he goes the way of all the earth, unhonored and unsung, for the reason that the only conspicuous place occupied in the arena of life was in the board of trade. And so when our man had consummated the bright plan for the disposition of his surplus, he remarked, "Soul, take thine ease, eat, drink and be merry. Thou hast much goods laid up for many years." But that night brought his everlasting doom. "So is he that layeth up treasure for himself." Don't forget that. "And is not rich towards God." Some one says, well, I am not rich, and the shoe doesn't pinch me. If you are as poor as Job's turkey, and live a life of selfishness, it does fit you.

Sometimes when a man of the character depicted in our lesson goes out the papers speak of his big funeral and announce that he had been a mighty factor in the building of the town. No selfish man was ever a town builder in its true sense and then, on his magnificent tomb-stone, the world writes: "Success." But God comes by and with his own finger, as it were, He writes: "Fool." That is the difference. The Savior was using this parable to illustrate the proposition: "Take heed and beware of covetousness; for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." And it is mighty hard for the average man, the majority, to take in this truth. The most damnable of all sins today is covetousness, an inordinate desire to increase material possessions. "The love of money is the root of all evil." Men are sometimes turned out of the church—not often, for it is an easy berth for various offenses; but whoever heard of the ejectment of a covetous man; and this is the sin of idolatry. Brother, are you as the man in the text, living for self. Are you trying to keep all the surplus? Don't say the trusts have it all. What are you doing with yours? Are you rich towards God? Take the case. Examine the evidence as it bears directly on your own life; and if, as an honest juror, you fetch in a verdict of guilt against yourself, remember there is a pardoning power; and on amendment of life and conduct you will find the joy in being rich towards God. And when passing to that rest for all the people of God, it will not be said of you, "Fool," but his works do follow him." The lesson of the text is, don't bestow your goods, fruits, in barns and other places, simply for personal enjoyment; but put your treasures in circulation so that others may have benefit from the same, and long before you are dead you may discover that life is not vain as the dividends from this wise distribution of surplus fill your heart with the truth, that it is more blessed to give than to receive. Try the plan.

List Your City Taxes.

This is to notify all persons that I will attend at the mayor's office, at 112 North Elm street, during the month of June for the purpose of listing city taxes. Agents, administrators, trustees and all persons holding property in their own right or by virtue of their agency or otherwise are hereby notified to come forward and list the same, as a failure so to do will subject them to a double tax.

John S. Michaux,
May 15, '99. City Clerk.

P. S.—At the same time and place the list-takers and assessors for Morehead and Gilmer townships will attend for the purpose of assessing and listing property for state and county taxes in said townships. m17-3w

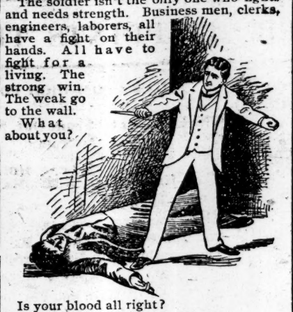
William L. Clark Jr, of New York city, has been elected professor of common and statute law by the trustees of Washington and Lee University, at Lexington, Va.

If a man is going to fight he wants to be well. He wants to be strong, steady-nerved, vigorous—able to take and give punishment. One of Roosevelt's Rough Riders actually starved to death because his digestive system wasn't strong enough to extract the nutriment from food that kept his comrades strong and well and in tip-top fighting trim.

The soldier isn't the only one who fights and needs strength. Business men, clerks, engineers, laborers, all have a fight on their hands. All have to fight for a living. The strong win. The weak go to the wall. What about you?



Is your blood all right?
Do you feel right?
Are you losing flesh?
Feel "run down?"
Do you sleep well?
Have trouble with your stomach?
Tired all the time?

If so what you need is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It makes men strong. It keys the digestive system right up to concert pitch. It tones the stomach, stimulates the liver, strengthens the nerves, enriches the blood—makes a new man of you. Puts snap and vim and endurance into you.

A. D. Weller, Esq., of Pensacola, Escambia Co., Fla. (Box 544), writes: "I have taken eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and must say that I am transformed from a walking shadow (as my friends called me), to perfect health. Four months ago I did not think to be in shape to assist our 'Uncle Samuel' in case of hostilities, but thanks to you, I am now ready for the 'Dons.'"

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSOM, VA., Dec. 31.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadeldhia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Pneumonia, la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping-cough readily yield to One Minute Cough Cure. Use this remedy in time and save a doctor's bill—or the undertaker's. Howard Gardner.

People who have once taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers will never have anything else. They are the "famous little pills" for torpid liver and all irregularities of the system. Howard Gardner.

Little, neglected scratches and wounds frequently result in blood-poisoning. Better heal them quickly with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a thoroughly anti-septic application with a record of always curing piles, old ulcers, sores, cuts, wounds and skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children. —W. A. Stroud, Popomoke City, Md. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well! How does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Harry Lewis went to High Point this morning.

Capt. B. J. Fisher went to Asheboro this morning.

Mrs. J. L. Scott, Jr., of Graham, passed through the city last evening enroute to Charlotte to visit friends.

Mrs. John Oates, of Fayetteville, passed through the city last evening enroute to Winston to visit relatives.

Miss Lucy Sherrill, a student at the State Normal and Industrial College, left this morning for Durham to visit her sister.

Miss Laura Goode, a student at Greensboro Female College, having finished her examinations, left this morning for her home at Kings Mountain.

Rev. R. E. Caldwell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Winston, passed through the city last evening going to Asheville to preach the baccalaureate sermon at one of that city's schools.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W.M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. THE OLD REBS

Gave a Rebel yell and carried Charleston by storm. They have the right of way on all occasions; and in fact they are entitled to it. Just so with

Harry-Belk Brothers Co.

They have carried Greensboro by storm—captured the whole city and country without encountering the slightest obstacle. We did not raise a Rebel yell to accomplish what we have done, but simply turned loose our "Gatlin gun" and shelled the woods. The same was loaded with panic goods. Railroad wrecks and the like brought them down at long range. To see the crowds flocking to our store you would think we had another Confederate here, but it is this Cuban warfare among prices liberates our bargain counters and, my, the way the way the masses are accepting the situation—freedom from the galling yoke of high prices and big profits is enough to stir the country from center to circumference. "Watch out!" Our buyer has been in New York and Boston for some time closing out shoe manufacturers, clothing merchants, dry goods stocks, etc , at often less than the cost of making. Going north at this season gives us a decided advantage over others, for all manufacturers are anxious to clean up the stocks on hand before the fall season opens. Few goods piling in every day.

Listen! Checks 2c, calico 2c, bleaching 4c, towels 2½c, lawns 2c, ladies' patent sandals 68c, worth $1.50; ladies' and children's Oxfords and slippers 25c up. Never before had goods so cheap. All we ask is for you to see them. It is like picking up dollars. We have bargains to offer you all our our store, so if dollars are worth anything to you, you can save them by looking through our stock of dry goods, notions, shoes, hats, gents' furnishings, etc., much easier than you can make them, no matter how easy they come.

So hide out, little ones, and give the people the right of way to Preparing to Fight It.

Under an act of the recent legislature a dispensary was established for the city of Greensboro. A board of managers has been elected and preparations are now being made to open up on the first of July. A certain attorney in this city has today been visiting the barrooms of the city with a law book under his arm, and it has leaked out that an effort is being organized to institute legal proceedings to prevent the opening of the dispensary. It is believed that the constitutionality of the law enacting it will be attacked. That is the way it looks today, and we shall see "what we shall see."

The Guessing Contest.

The guessing contest will close tonight and your guess must be sealed and handed to the parties selling my berries by Monday. Now the number of quarts that I gather will be placed in a sealed envelope and together with the guesses will be handed to the following gentlemen who will compose the committee: Robt. Aiken, R M. Pickard, C. A. Clapp, S. E. Hudson, G. T. McLean.

The one guessing nearest to the number of quarts of berries that I pick this week will get a crate of selected berries, which will be delivered Monday afternoon. This is open only to the consumers of my berries and not to the dealers. We will deliver berries fresh from the vine today for Sunday.
